

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

MICHAEL HOLTSINGER,

Plaintiff,

No. CIV S-03-0732 MCE CMK P

vs.

J. M. BRIDDLE, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER AND ORDER DIRECTING SERVICE

BY THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL

WITHOUT PREPAYMENT OF COSTS

Plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. Plaintiff has made repeated attempts to serve defendant Knight. On June 19, 2006, plaintiff submitted the required paperwork for service of defendant Knight but submitted a copy of the November 29, 2004 complaint, which is no longer the operative complaint in this action. By order filed June 22, 2006, the court ordered plaintiff to submit a copy of the March 1, 2006 amended complaint for service on defendant Knight. Plaintiff has submitted a copy of the March 1, 2006 complaint. Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The Clerk of the Court is directed to forward the instructions for service of process, the completed summons, copies of the complaint, and copies of this order to the United States Marshal.

1 2. Within ten days from the date of this order, the United States Marshal is 2 directed to notify defendant Tanya Knight of the commencement of this action and to request a
3 waiver of service of summons in accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d) and 28
4 U.S.C. § 566(c).

5 3. The United States Marshal is directed to retain the sealed summons and a copy 6 of the complaint in their file for future use.

7 4. The United States Marshal shall file returned waivers of service of summons 8 as well as any requests for waivers that are returned as undelivered as soon as they are received.

9 5. If a waiver of service of summons is not returned by a defendant within sixty 10 days from the date of mailing the request for waiver, the United States Marshal shall:

11 a. Personally serve process and a copy of this order upon the defendant
12 pursuant to Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 28 U.S.C.
13 § 566(c) and shall command all necessary assistance from the California 14 Department of Corrections (CDC) to execute this order. The United 15 States Marshal shall maintain the confidentiality of all information
16 provided by the CDC pursuant to this order.

17 b. Within ten days after personal service is effected, the United States 18 Marshal shall file the return of service for the defendant, along with 19 evidence of any attempts to secure a waiver of service of summons and of 20 the costs subsequently incurred in effecting service on said defendant.
21 Said costs shall be enumerated on the USM-285 form and shall include the 22 costs incurred by the Marshal's office for photocopying additional copies 23 of the summons and complaint and for preparing new USM-285 forms, if 24 required. Costs of service will be taxed against the personally served 25 defendant in accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d)(2).

26 ///

1 6. In the event the U.S. Marshal is unable, for any reason, to effect service on 2 any defendant within 90 days from the date of this order, the Marshal is directed to report that 3 fact, and the reasons for it, to the undersigned.

4 7. Defendants shall reply to the complaint within the time provided by the 5 applicable provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a).

6 8. Unless otherwise ordered, all motions to dismiss, motions for summary
7 judgment, motions concerning discovery, motions pursuant to Rules 7, 11, 12, 15, 41, 55, 56, 59
8 and 60 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and motions pursuant to Local Rule 11-110 shall 9 be briefed pursuant to Local Rule 78-230(m). Failure to oppose such a motion timely may be 10 deemed a waiver of opposition to the motion. Opposition to all other motions need be filed only 11 as directed by the court.

12 9. If plaintiff is released from prison at any time during the pendency of this case,
13 any party may request application of other provisions of Local Rule 78-230 in lieu of Local Rule
14 78-230(m). In the absence of a court order granting such a request, the provisions of Local Rule 15 78-230(m) will govern all motions described in #7 above regardless of plaintiff's custodial 16 status. See Local Rule 1-102(d).

17 10. Pursuant to Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1120 n.14 (9th Cir. 2003), 18 plaintiff is advised of the following requirements for opposing a motion to dismiss for failure to 19 exhaust administrative remedies made by defendant pursuant to non-enumerated Rule 12(b) of 20 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion is a request for dismissal of unexhausted 21 claims without prejudice. The defendant may submit affidavits or declarations under penalty of 22 perjury and admissible documentation to support the motion to dismiss. To oppose the motion, 23 plaintiff may likewise file declarations under penalty of perjury and admissible documentation.
24 Plaintiff may rely upon statements made under the penalty of perjury in the complaint if the 25 complaint shows that plaintiff has personal knowledge of the matters stated and plaintiff calls to 26 the court's attention those parts of the complaint upon which plaintiff relies. Plaintiff may serve

1 and file one or more affidavits or declarations by other persons who have personal knowledge of 2 relevant matters. Plaintiff may also rely upon written records, but plaintiff must prove that the 3 records are what plaintiff claims they are. If plaintiff fails to contradict defendant's evidence
4 with admissible evidence, the court may rely on the defendant's evidence. In the event both 5 sides submit matters outside the pleadings, the court may look beyond the pleadings and decide 6 disputed issues of fact. If plaintiff does not serve and file a written opposition to the motion, the 7 court may consider the failure to act as a waiver of opposition to the defendant's motion. If the 8 defendant's motion to dismiss, whether opposed or unopposed, is granted, plaintiff's unexhausted 9 claims will be dismissed without prejudice.

10 11. Pursuant to Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 957 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc), 11 cert. denied, 527 U.S. 1035 (1999), and Klinge v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409 (9th Cir. 1988), 12 plaintiff is advised of the following requirements for opposing a motion for summary judgment
13 made by defendants pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion
14 is a request for an order for judgment in favor of defendants without trial. A defendant's motion 15 for summary judgment will set forth the facts that the defendants contend are not reasonably 16 subject to dispute and that entitle the defendants to judgment. To oppose a motion for summary 17 judgment, plaintiff must show proof of his or her claims. Plaintiff may do this in one or more of 18 the following ways. Plaintiff may rely upon statements made under the penalty of perjury in the 19 complaint if the complaint shows that plaintiff has personal knowledge of the matters stated and 20 plaintiff calls to the court's attention those parts of the complaint upon which plaintiff relies.
21 Plaintiff may serve and file one or more affidavits or declarations setting forth the facts that 22 plaintiff believes prove plaintiff's claims; the person who signs an affidavit or declaration must 23 have personal knowledge of the facts stated. Plaintiff may rely upon written records, but plaintiff 24 must prove that the records are what plaintiff claims they are. Plaintiff may rely upon all or any 25 part of the transcript of one or more depositions, answers to interrogatories, or admissions 26 obtained in this proceeding. If plaintiff fails to contradict the defendants' evidence with

1 counteraffidavits or other admissible evidence, the defendants' evidence may be taken as the truth
2 and the defendants' motion for summary judgment granted. If there is some good reason why 3 such facts are not available to plaintiff when required to oppose a motion for summary judgment,
4 the court will consider a request to postpone considering the defendants' motion. If plaintiff does 5 not serve and file a written opposition to the motion or a request to postpone consideration of the 6 motion, the court may consider the failure to act as a waiver of opposition to the defendants'
7 motion. If the defendants' motion for summary judgment, whether opposed or unopposed, is 8 granted, judgment will be entered for the defendants without a trial and the case will be closed.

9 12. A motion or opposition supported by unsigned affidavits or declarations will 10 be stricken.

11 13. Each party shall keep the court informed of a current address at all times while 12 the action is pending. Any change of address must be reported promptly to the court in a separate 13 document captioned for this case and entitled "Notice of Change of Address." A notice of change 14 of address must be properly served on other parties. Pursuant to Local Rule 83-182(d), service of 15 documents at the record address of a party is fully effective. Failure to inform the court of a 16 change of address may result in the imposition of sanctions including dismissal of the action.

17 14. The Clerk of the Court shall serve upon plaintiff a copy of the Local Rules of 18 Court.
